First Sunday of Advent December 2, 2018

*I will raise up for David a just shoot; he shall do what is right and just in the land.
-- Jeremiah 33:15*

THE PROMISE OF JUSTICE

We are in fairly good company when we ask God for justice. Often enough we hear and agree with the lament of the people of Israel asking God why the wicked prosper. However, when we call out for justice, we usually want someone to get his or her comeuppance. Gods justice is something other than this, of course. Gods justice comprises a wonderful rightness between God and humankind. Today, Jeremiah looks ahead to a time when a just one will sprout from the shorn-off stump of Jesse of the house and family of David. Life was not fair in Jeremiahs time. Israels kings held the promise of Gods fidelity, but it was difficult to see how Gods promise could be realized through them. Nevertheless, Jeremiah lifts his voice and announces that the Promised One will come. Lukes Gospel echoes that announcement, and Paul is filled with sturdy encouragement. And so Advent begins with a promise.
